

NEW! Tallinn Architecture tour by bicycle

Tallinn is not known only for its medieval Old Town, there is much more to discover. Soviet Architecture Bike tour is best way to get to know old and new Tallinn architectural sights. It brings you from middle age to new age.

Distance & duration: 10-12 km, 3 – 4 hours

Participants: groups and incentives (6-50 people)

Languages: English, other languages on request

Tailor made programme will be made to focus groups requirements

Start and end place: from Old Town of Tallinn, City Bike office, 33, Uus Street

Price: 350EEK/22,5 EUR (3 hours), 400 EEK/25,6 EUR (4 hours)

50% discount when you come with your own bike

Price includes: bikes, helmets, safety vests, soft drink, guide, (rain coats available if needed) For winter special winter tires with spikes and gloves/hats available.
Price does not include tickets to museums/sights

Route: moderate/easy cycling, flat terrain

Sites to see on tour: Fat Margarethe tower, Kopli peninsula (Kalamaja, soviet legacy, Sea fortress Patarei (Battery)) and Seaplane Harbour, City Hall, Kadriorg park and palaces, New art Gallery KUMU, Song festival ground, new contemporary Rotermann area (new modern district and Estonian Architecture museum).

Season: all year around

Booking: From City Bike Ltd. Uus 33, 10111 Tallinn, Manager Toomas Lelov,
Mob. +372 56 608090, mail@citybike.ee, www.citybike.ee

