

NEW!

Old Town – Rocca al Mare bicycle tour

New seaside bicycle road have been built in Tallinn, connecting Rocca al Mare Open Air Museum with Old Town. This is new possibility due to developing bicycle raods network in Tallinn.

This tour is for groups interested from Old Town, seaside, and countryside architecture well presented at the Open Air Museum.

On a guided tour we cycle and admire the surroundings as well - the speed is low and the group is stopping at interesting, picturesque and historical places.

Distance & duration: 9 km +1 km in the Open Air Museum + 9 km, 3 – 4 hours

Participants: groups and incentives (4-50 people)

Languages: English, other languages on request

Start and end place: preferred from Old Town of Tallinn, City Bike office, 33, Uus Street. Tailor made programme available to meet groups requirements.

Price: 350 EEK/ 23 EUR

50% discount when you come with your own bike

50% discount for children 7-14 (smaller pay only for equipment rental)

Price includes: bikes (city or trekking), helmets, safety vests, soft drink, guide, (rain coats available if needed) For winter special winter tires with spikes and gloves/hats available. Price includes ticket to Rocca al Mare Open Air Museum

Route: moderate/easy cycling, flat terrain

Sites to see on a way: Fat Margaret's Tower, Old Town Wall and Toompea hill surroundings, 1920-30-s wooden housing area, Stroomi beach, new seaside cycle promenade, Open Air Museum. It is just some sites but with our guide we can go almost any area in town!

Season: all year round

Booking: at least 19.00 day before the tour by phone: +372 5111819 or mail@citybike.ee

